STRIKES SUNKEN ROCKS

Lusitania Wrecked, 800

Passengers Saved.

Capetown, South Africa, April 19.—The Portuguese mail steamer Lusitania is piled up on Bellows Rock, two miles southwest of the Cape of Good Hope. Her 800 passengers and crew were taken off this morning by the British warship Forte and a Government tug.

The Lusitania was bound from Mozambique for Lisbon when she struck on the sunken rocks. There is no hope of saving the vessel.

Eight persons were drowned during the transfer of the passengers and crew from the wreck to the British Warship Forte and a Government tug. Those lost were four men, two women and two children, occupants of two small boats which capsized. Their companions were rescued.

COMMITTED SUICIDE AT MORGANFIELD

Short $6,000 in his accounts

Morganfield, Ky., April 20.—Sheriff J. W. Carter, of Union county, committed suicide in a stable on his place by shooting himself. Death was instant.

In an investigation of his office made recently he was found to be $6,000 short in his accounts and he had been given until tomorrow to make up the deficit. It is supposed that his efforts to raise the money had failed and in his despondency he decided to kill himself.

He was a prominent citizen of this county and is survived by his wife and a large family.

THOMAS S. RHEA
OF LOGAN COUNTY

Has authorized the announcement of his candidacy for Treasurer of the State of Kentucky subject to the action of the Democratic primary election to be held July, 1st, 1911.

Mr. Rhea is a native of Russellville and has lived there all of his life. For years he was sheriff of Logan County.

At the expiration of his term of office he was elected Vice President of the Bank of Russellville and has since that time been the of the bank. He holds this position now and has made for himself an enviable reputation as a financier and business man. He is a brother of the Hon. John S. Rhea, former Representative in congress from the Third district and is one of the most widely known young democrats in the State.

His advice and counsel are always in demand. He is a tireless worker and is never happier than when engaged in a political combat.

Mr. Rhea stands in the foremost ranks at home and his friends throughout the state think his name on a ticket would bring much strength to the party in November.

Pretty Home Wedding

A pretty home wedding was solemnized Wednesday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Thurman at Buena Park, when their daughter, Eula, was given in marriage to Charles Richard Bealy, of this city.

Promptly at high noon the couple took their places before the Reverend William M. Perry, pastor of the Fisat Baptist church of Ontario, who, with a few impressive words united them in the holy bonds of matrimony. The ceremony was witnessed by relatives and intimate friends of the contracting parties only.

The parlor was beautifully decorated in calla lilies and greenery while the dining room and tables were in lavender, bodina flowers and satin ribbons of dainty shade being used effectively.

Following congratulations all repaired to the dining room where a delicious wedding breakfast was served.

The bride is a charming young woman and is held in high esteem by her many friends at Buena Park.

Mr. Bealy is a prosperous young man and is at present engaged in the wholesale fruit business in Pomona. After a short wedding trip, Mr. and Mrs. Bealy will be at home to their friends in Pomona. —Ontario Cal. Daily Rep.

Relict Of Judge Carter

Goes To Her Reward

Died at the home of her son, D. W. Carter, Mrs. Jane Carter last Friday morning, aged nearly ninety-two. She was the consort of the late Judge D. W. Carter. Five children survive her, Eld. T. C. Carter, J. B. Carter, D. W. Carter, Mrs. Henry Cook and Mrs. Harriet Donady, all of this county. The funeral services were conducted at Union church Saturday by Revs. Miller and LaRue, after which her body was laid to rest beside her husband in hope of the resurrection. Precious in the sight of the Lord is the death of His saints. They rest from their labors and they do follow them.
